Doing Ethnographic Research

Fieldwork Settings

Scott Grills
EDITOR

SAGE Publications
International Educational and Professional Publisher
Thousand Oaks London New Delhi

Contents

Preface v

Acknowledgments vii

PART I: INTRODUCTION 1

1. An Invitation to the Field:
Fieldwork and the Pragmatists' Lesson 3
Scott Grills

PART II: PURSUING INTIMATE FAMILIARITY
AND THE PROBLEM OF MEMBERSHIP 19

2. Respecting the Human Condition:
Pursuing Intersubjectivity in the Marketplace 21
Robert Prus

3. Doing Ethnographic Research in Jewish Orthodox
Communities: The Neglected Role of Sociability 48
William Shaffir

4. The Ethnic Outsider: The Hurdles of Anglophone
Field Research on North American Francophones 65
Robert A. Stebbins

5. On Being Nonpartisan in Partisan Settings: Field Research Among the Politically Committed 76
Scott Grills

PART III: ISSUES IN METHODOLOGICAL PRACTICE 95

6. Navigating the Family Domain: Qualitative Field Dilemmas 97
Kerry Daly and Anna Dienhart
7. Experience, Methodological Observation, and Theory: A Blumerian Excursion 121
Dan Albas and Cheryl Albas
8. Hanging Out With the Good 'Ole Boys, Gangsters, and Other Disreputable Characters: Field Research, Quantitative Research, and Exceptional Events 143
Richard A. Brymer

PART IV: ETHICS, INTERVENTION, AND EMOTIONALITY 163

9. Organizational Ethics and Fieldwork Realities: Negotiating Ethical Boundaries in Codependents Anonymous 167
Leslie Irvine
10. Animal Passions: The Emotional Experience of Doing Ethnography in Animal-Human Interaction Settings 184
Clinton R. Sanders

PART V: ETHNOGRAPHIC TEXT AND ETHNOGRAPHIC VOICE 199

11. Presenting Constructions of Identity and Divinity: Ásatrú and Oracular Seidhr 203
Jenny Blain
12. Telling Tales and Writing Stories: Postmodernist Visions and Realist Images in Ethnographic Writing 228
Richard G. Mitchell, Jr., and Kathy Charmaz

Name Index 249

About the Contributors 253