

VERHANDELINGEN

VAN HET KONINKLIJK INSTITUUT
VOOR TAAL-, LAND- EN VOLKENKUNDE

116

ANTHROPOLOGY OF LAW
IN THE NETHERLANDS

ESSAYS ON LEGAL PLURALISM

Edited by

KEEBET VON BENDA-BECKMANN and FONS STRIJBOSCH

1986

FORIS PUBLICATIONS

Dordrecht-Holland/Cinnaminson-U.S.A.

Contents

Keebet von Benda-Beckmann and Fons Strijbosch Introduction	1
Part I Anthropology of law in the Netherlands
John Griffiths Recent anthropology of law in the Netherlands and its historical background	11
Part II Theory and methodology
G.C.J.J. van den Bergh The concept of folk law in historical context: a brief outline	67
Franz von Benda-Beckmann Anthropology and comparative law	90
J.F. Holleman Trouble-cases and trouble-less cases in the study of customary law and legal reform	110
Part III Dispute management and legal pluralism
Keebet von Benda-Beckmann Evidence and legal reasoning in Minangkabau	132
Emile van Rouveroy van Nieuwaal and Els van Rouveroy van Nieuwaal- Baerends The plot of the sophisticated son in law: old and new ways in establishing rights over land in N'Zara (North Togo)	175
Danker H. Schaareman Context and the interpretation of adat rules in a Balinese village	195
Herman Slaats and Karen Portier Legal plurality and the transformation of normative concepts in the process of litigation in Karo Batak society	217
Kenneth Maddock Asking for Utopia: a study in aboriginal land rights	240

Part IV. The role of law in trouble-free social life

Dieter Eikemeier Law, contract, and covenant: aspects of a Korean mutual insurance venture	260
Fons Strijbosch Credit contracts on the island of Lombok	288
Acknowledgements	306
The authors	307