WRITING ACROSS WORLDS

Literature and migration

Edited by Russell King, John Connell and Paul White

CONTENTS

	List of contributors Preface Acknowledgements	vii ix xvii
1	GEOGRAPHY, LITERATURE AND MIGRATION Paul White	1
2	LITERARY REFLECTIONS ON IRISH MIGRATION IN THE NINETEENTH AND TWENTIETH CENTURIES Patrick Duffy	20
3	FROM PAPPKOFFER TO PLURALISM Migrant writing in the German Federal Republic Sabine Fischer and Moray McGowan	39
4	'RIVERS TO CROSS' Exile and transformation in the Caribbean migration novels of George Lamming Claire Alexander	57
5	NEGOTIATING IDENTITY IN THE METROPOLIS Generational differences in South Asian British fiction Suresht Renjen Bald	70
6	PERCEPTIONS OF PLACE AMONG WRITERS OF ALGERIAN IMMIGRANT ORIGIN IN FRANCE Alec Hargreaves	89
7	FROM FRANCITÉ TO CRÉOLITÉ French West Indian literature comes home Robert Aldrich	101
8	PIED-NOIR LITERATURE The writing of a migratory elite Rosemarie Jones	125

CONTENTS

9	FRIULANI NEL MONDO The literature of an Italian emigrant region Federica Scarpa	141
10	SUNDAY TOO FAR AWAY Images of emigrant existence in the literature of Slovenes in the United States, Canada and Australia Jerneja Petrič	162
11	MIGRATION IN CONTEMPORARY MALTESE FICTION Arnold Cassola	172
12	LITERARY PERSPECTIVES ON JEWS IN BRITAIN IN THE EARLY TWENTIETH CENTURY Stanley Waterman and Marlena Schmool	180
13	RETURN MIGRATION IN AMERICAN NOVELS OF THE 1920s AND 1930s Neil Larry Shumsky	198
14	BIRDS OF PASSAGE OR SQUAWKING DUCKS Writing across generations of Japanese-Canadian literature Audrey Kobayashi	216
15	VULCAN'S BROOD Spatial narratives of migration in Southern Africa Jonathan Crush	229
16	FAR CITIES AND SILVER COUNTRIES Migration to Australia in fiction and film Roy Jones	248
17	IN SAMOAN WORLDS Culture, migration, identity and Albert Wendt John Connell	263
	Index	280