

Ingrians and Neighbours

Focus on the eastern
Baltic Sea region

Edited by
Markku Teinonen
Timo J. Virtanen

Contents

PREFACE

- Matti Räsänen Background and anatomy of the project
The research project in ethnicity and identity 9
- Markku Teinonen &
Timo J. Virtanen On the target, fieldwork and research process 18

LANGUAGE AND FOLKLORE

- Ilkka Savijärvi &
Muusa Savijärvi Language contacts in Ingrian-Finnish 23
- Annikki Kaivola-Bregenhøj Life as a narrative
Ingrian-Finns tell about their vicissitudes 48
- Maria Vasenkari &
Armi Pekkala A path to an understanding Construction of life story in a research interview 61

INGERMANNLAND IN ST. PETERSBURG REGION, ETHNOLOGICAL ASPECTS

- Alexandra Zadneprovskaya The destiny of Ingrian-Finns and their national culture on the native land 85
- Markku Teinonen The present as a mirror of the past
What it means to be an Ingrian-Finn in Northwest Russia today 98
- Alexandr Gadlo &
Alexei Novozhilov &
Anton Chistyakov &
Sergey Egorov Study on the Ethnic Contacts on the Territory of South Ingria and in the Zone of the Vepsian-Russian Boundary 122

FAR FROM HOME

- Terje Anepaio The Land Next To Ingria
Ingrian-Finns in North-East Estonia After World War II 155

Nataliya Shlygina &
O.Ye. Kazmina

Ingrian-Finns of the parish of Holy Trinity Church (Moscow) 182

Pirkko Malinen

The Ingrian-Finnish remigrants Factors preventing and promoting integration 195

ON THE BORDERS OF INGERMANLAND

Olga M. Fishman

Historical memory as a category of culture of the Tikhvin Karelians 213

Authors 227

Bibliography 228