

DRESS, BODY, CULTURE

Folk Dress in Europe and Anatolia
Beliefs about Protection and Fertility

Edited by

Linda Welters

Oxford • New York

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Preface	ix
Notes on Contributors	xi
1 Introduction: Folk Dress, Supernatural Beliefs, and the Body Linda Welters	1
2 On the Antiquity of East European Bridal Clothing E. J. W. Barber	13
3 Traditional Turkish Women's Dress: A Source of Common Understandings for Expected Behaviors Marlene R. Breu	33
4 The Peloponnesian "Zonari": A Twentieth-century String Skirt Linda Welters	53
5 Gilding the Lily: Dress and Women's Reproductive Role in the Greek Village, 1850–1950 Linda Welters	71
6 Threads of Life: Red Fringes in Macedonian Dress Vesna Mladenovic	97
7 The Curious Tale of the Ultra-long Sleeve (A Eurasian Epic) E. J. W. Barber	111
8 Protection from Harm: The Shawl and Cap in Czech and Slovak Wedding, Birthing and Funerary Rites Patricia Williams	135

Contents

9	Living Textile Traditions of the Carpathians Mary B. Kelly	155
10	The Cultural Significance of Belts in Latvian Dress Linda Welters and Īra Kuhn-Bolšaitis	179
11	To Ward Off Evil: Metal on Norwegian Folk Dress Laurann Gilbertson	199
12	The Dynamic Relationship Between Lithuanian National Costumes and Folk Dress Ruta Saliklis	211
	Index	235