

Women's Studies

AN INTERDISCIPLINARY ANTHOLOGY

Roberta Rosenberg, EDITOR

PETER LANG

New York • Washington, D.C./Baltimore • Bern
Frankfurt am Main • Berlin • Brussels • Vienna • Oxford

Contents

List of Tables	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction Roberta Rosenberg	1
I. Social and Philosophical Issues in Women's Experience	13
1. Reconstructing Site as Insight: Reflections of a Feminist Ethnographer Helen Johnson	15
2. The Feminist Center of Global Labor Movements Torry D. Dickinson	31
3. Gender and the Challenge of Social Construction: Mary, the Mother of Jesus Maurice Hamington	49
II. Language and Gender Theory	65
4. Feminist Theory and Its Implications for Women and Language Study Jace Condravy	67
5. Stirring Women into Adventure Jackie Kiewa	89
6. "Busting the Masculine Mystique": Failure as Empowerment in Men in Late Twentieth-Century American Literature Terry Lee	107

III. Women's Psychological and Biological Issues	125
7. Death and Society: A Feminist Perspective Rebecca Reviere and Robyn W. West	127
8. Abortion and Pornography: Issues of Symbolic Politics Marilyn Mote-Yale	143
IV. Women's Popular Culture and Performing Arts	161
9. Popular Culture: An Introduction Aeron Haynie	163
10. Representations of the Feminine Ideal in Women's Popular Periodicals from 1920 to 1996: Considerations of Race and Class Judith Jackson Pomeroy	181
11. What the Wise Men Say: Moral Modernization and Cultural Contradictions in The Snapper Anne McLeer	207
V. Literature and Gender Relations	219
12. "I th' posture of a whore": Shakespeare and the Female Hero Alycia Smith-Howard	221
13. "The Thing That Really Counts": Gender Identity in Stevie Smith's Novel on Yellow Paper Julie Sims Steward	235
14. Latin American Women Writers and the Construction of a National Patrimony Adriana Rosman-Askot	247
Contributors	261
Index	265