

Pilgrim Voices

Narrative and Authorship in Christian Pilgrimage

Edited by

Simon Coleman and John Elsner

Berghahn Books
New York • Oxford

Contents

Pilgrim Voices: Authoring Christian Pilgrimage Simon Coleman, University of Durham and John Elsner, Corpus Christi College, Oxford	1
The Diplomat, the Trucheman and the Mystagogue: Forms of Belonging in Early Modern Jerusalem Wes Williams, New College, Oxford	17
Pilgrimage into Words and Images: the Miracles of Santa Maria delle Carceri in Renaissance Prato Robert Maniura, Birkbeck College, London	40
The Pilgrimage of Passion in Sidney's Arcadia Helen Moore, Corpus Christi College, Oxford	61
Narratives of Transformation: Pilgrimage Patterns and Authorial Self-Presentation in Three Pilgrimage Texts Alexia Petsalis-Diomidis, University College, Dublin	84
Bowing Down to Wood and Stone: One Way to be a Pilgrim Charles Lock, University of Copenhagen	110
Postcards from the Edge of History: Narrative and the Sacralisation of Mormon Historical Sites Hildi J. Mitchell, University of Sussex	133
Index	159