

Philosophies of Race and Ethnicity

EDITED BY

PETER OSBORNE AND STELLA SANDFORD

 continuum
LONDON • NEW YORK

Contents

Notes on Contributors vii

Introduction: Philosophies of Race and Ethnicity I
Peter Osborne and Stella Sandford

PART I

Chapter One: Philosophy and Racial Identity 13
Linda Martín Alcoff

Chapter Two: Fanon, Phenomenology, Race 29
David Macey

Chapter Three: Primordial Being: Enlightenment and the Indian
Subject of Postcolonial Theory 40
Chetan Bhatt

Chapter Four: Race and Language in the Two Saussures 63
Robert J. C. Young

PART II

Chapter Five: Unspeakable Histories: Diasporic Lives in Old
England 81
Bill Schwarz

Chapter Six: Race, Colonialism and History: China at the Turn of the Twentieth Century	97
Rebecca E. Karl
Chapter Seven: Ethnicity and Species: On the Philosophy of the Multi-ethnic State in Japanese Imperialism	114
Naoki Sakai
Chapter Eight: On Chineseness as a Theoretical Problem	132
Rey Chow
Chapter Nine: Race and Slavery: The Politics of Recovery and Reparation	150
Françoise Vergès
Chapter Ten: Rewriting the Black Subject: The Black Brazilian Emancipatory Text	160
Denise Ferreira da Silva
Notes	173
Select Bibliography	212
Index	214