

Horst Kopp (Ed.)

Area Studies, Business and Culture

Results of the
Bavarian Research Network forarea®

LIT

Table of Contents

PART I

Development of the Research Network

Three Phases of Support with Increasing Focus

Horst Kopp, Peter Lindner 1

PART II

Reports on the Individual Projects

Support Phase 1

The Industrialization Potential of Peripheral Regions in Tanzania

Ingrid Angermann, Dieter Fricke 11

Private Business Enterprise and Economic Liberalisation in the Arab Republic of Syria:
Dynamics and Significance of Market Economy Factors in the Transition from a Centrally Planned to an Open Economic System

Jürgen Amann, Marc Boeckler, Hans Hopfinger 19

The Institutionalisation of Palestinian Entrepreneurship at the Peak of the Middle-East
Peace Process

Peter Lindner 29

Vietnamese Villages in Transition: The Developmental Potential of Vietnamese Villages

Bernhard Dahm 40

Potential for Tourism, Man-Environment Relationships and the Development of Tourism
in the Tabarka Region (NW Tunisia)

Klaus Gießner 48

Effects of Boundaries on Tourist Supply and Demand Structures in the Red Sea Region:
Aqaba, Eilat, Taba

Horst-Günter Wagner, Mario Mohr 56

The Development and Economic Impact of Newly Established Tourist Areas in Rural Areas of Morocco and Tunisia

Andreas Kagermeier 61

The Impact of Tourism on the Traditional Potters' Communities in the Maghreb Country of Morocco. An Ethnological Study

Hernán Benítez Jump 70

Table of Contents

Consequences of New Forms of International Tourism (Trekking and Desert Tours) in Rural Regions of the Maghreb – Case Study Southern Morocco Herbert Popp	81
Acculturation Due to Tourism: Sociocultural Conflict Situations for Tunisian Woman in the Tourism-Related Acculturation Process Brigitte Moser-Weithmann	88
Patterns of Interaction in Tunisian Coastal Towns Carmella Pfaffenbach	95
Changing Land Law and Economic Developments in Tanzania: The Acquisition and Security of Land Rights Fauz Twaib	102
Work in Formal Organizations in Nairobi, Kenya Gerd Spittler, Gabriele Wurster	110
Intercultural Communication as a Success Factor in Economic Relations between the USA, China and Germany Birgit Zinzius	119
German-Turkish Communication at the Workplace in Turkey Asker Kartari, Klaus Roth (Support Phase 1+2)	128
Dictatorship and Anomia Peter Waldmann	141
Support Phase 2
Respect the Other Culture – The Key to Business Success Dieter Böhn, Rüdiger Ahrens, Henning Albrecht, Thomas Reichenbach	151
Local Conditions, Market Opportunities and Risks for Medium-sized Bavarian Companies in the People’s Republic of China – Investigated Using Machine Tool Manufacturing as an Example Hans-Dieter Haas, Johannes Rehner	163
Private Entrepreneurship in the People’s Republic of China Torsten M. Kühlmann	175
Market Presence and Organizational Structures across Cultural Boundaries: Case Studies on the Involvement of Bavarian Medium-sized Companies in China Aida Bosch, Thomas Reichenbach, Gert Schmidt,	186

Vietnam in Transition: Market-Creating Institutions and Private Entrepreneurship Rainer Klump, Klaus Gottwald	200
International Business Cooperation in Jordan Christian Riedel	210
Formation and Institutionalization of a Non-white Entrepreneurship in South Africa Michael Babo, Dieter Fricke	225
Theoretical Basic Principles of Intercultural Communication and Perception in Multicultural Societies (such as in the USA) Klaus Lösch	240
Chicanos, Anglos and Indians: Perception of Other and Self between Three Cultures Tomás Christ	248
Irony and Parody as Strategies of a Broken Perspective in Contemporary Chicano/a Novels Thorsten Thiel	255
Cultural Heterogeneity and Nation as Illustrated by the Example of Venezuela Hans-Joachim König	262
Perception of the Other and Crossing of Boundaries in Contemporary Peruvian Novels Brigitte König	272
The Legal Dimension of Conflicts between Cultural Rights and Economic Actions in South Africa and Namibia Chuma Himonga, Harald Sippel, Ulrich Spellenberg, Ulrike Wanitzek	282
 Support Phase 3
German Entrepreneurs and Expatriates in Turkey: Their Action Strategies and Their Life-World in the Diaspora Asker Kartari, Klaus Roth	291
The Negotiation of Identities, Power and Space: An Investigation of Selected Maquiladora Plants in Ciudad Juárez, Mexico Christian Berndt	303
The Importance of the Diaspora Community for Businesses in Mexico: A Comparison of German and U.S. American Staff Members Posted Abroad Ingrid Dobler, Maren von Groll, Alois Moosmüller	316

Table of Contents

The Importance of the Diaspora for Businesses in Indonesia: A Comparison of German and U.S. American Expatriates
Thomas Hufnagel, Alois Moosmüller326

Co-operative Ventures between German and South African Companies – A Synopsis
Tina M. Babo, Dieter Fricke 334

The Role of Inter-Firm Networks in Penetrating Foreign Markets
Hans-Dieter Haas, Johannes Rehner 347

Trust in German-Mexican Business Relationships
Torsten M. Kühlmann, Oliver Schumann 356

Trust in Intercultural Cooperative Ventures between Japanese and German Small and Mediumsized Companies
Harald Dolles 372

Economic Culture and Business Co-operation in Southeast Asia, Exemplified by Indonesia and Singapore
Vincent J. H. Houben, Steffen Henkel, Claudia Ruppert 383

International Co-operation and Competition in Tourist Enterprises: Cultural and Economic Aspects of their Behaviour
Hans Hopfinger, Nicolai Scherle 397

Holiday Courses: Focus on Central Asia – Languages and Area Studies
Klaus Kreiser, Bert G. Fragner, Michael Friederich (Support Phase 1) 410

Patterns of Perception and Business Contacts
Hans-Joachim König (Support Phase 1+2) 414

PART III

Summary of Research Network Achievements
Horst Kopp 419