

CORRUPTION

Anthropological Perspectives

Edited by

DIETER HALLER AND CRIS SHORE

Pluto  Press
LONDON • ANN ARBOR, MI

CONTENTS

1	Introduction – Sharp Practice: Anthropology and the Study of Corruption Cris Shore and Dieter Haller	1
Part I Corruption in ‘Transitional’ Societies?
2	The Sack of Two Cities: Organized Crime and Political Corruption in Youngstown and Palermo Jane Schneider and Peter Schneider	29
3	Bribes, Gifts and Unofficial Payments: Rethinking Corruption in Post-Soviet Russian Health Care Michele Rivkin-Fish	47
4	Corruption as a Transitional Phenomenon: Understanding Endemic Corruption in Postcommunist States David W. Lovell	65
5	Corruption, Property Restitution and Romanianness Filippo M. Zerilli	83
Part II Institutionalized Corruption and Institutions of Anti-corruption
6	Integrity Warriors: Global Morality and the Anti-corruption Movement in the Balkans Steven Sampson	103
7	Culture and Corruption in the EU: Reflections on Fraud, Nepotism and Cronyism in the European Commission Cris Shore	131
8	Corruption in Corporate America: Enron – Before and After Carol MacLennan	156
Part III Narratives and Practices of Everyday Corruption
9	Narrating the State of Corruption Akhil Gupta	173

10	Where the Jeeps Come From: Narratives of Corruption in the Alentejo (Southern Portugal) Dorle Dracklé	194
11	Citizens Despite the State: Everyday Corruption and Local Politics in El Alto, Bolivia Sian Lazar	212
12	Afterword – Anthropology and Corruption: The State of the Art Dorothy Louise Zinn	229
	Contributors	243
	Index	247