

Dining on Turtles

Food Feasts and Drinking in History

Edited by

Diane Kirkby and Tanja Luckins

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

List of Figures and Map	vii
Notes on Contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	xi
 Introduction: Of Turtles, Dining and the Importance of History in Food, Food in History Diane Kirkby, Tanja Luckins and Barbara Santich	 1
 Part I Feasting Past and Present
1 Banquets in Ancient Rome: Participation, Presentation and Perception Beryl Rawson	15
2 Food and Feast as Propaganda in Late Renaissance Italy Ken Albala	33
3 Feasting on National Identity: Whisky, Haggis and the Celebration of Scottishness in the Nineteenth Century Alex Tyrrell, Patricia Hill and Diane Kirkby	46
4 Moose-Nose and Buffalo Hump: The Amerindian-European Food Exchange in the British North American Fur Trade to 1840 George Colpitts	64
5 Competing for Cultural Honours: Cosmopolitanism, Food, Drink and the Olympic Games, Melbourne, 1956 Tanja Luckins	82
 Part II Food, Drink and Community
6 Cider, Oysters and Tavern Sociability: Ritual, Violence and Young Men in Early Modern Rural France John Cashmere	103

7	The Reform of Popular Drinking in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe A. Lynn Martin	121
8	'Beer, Women and Grub': Pubs, Food and the Industrial Working Class Diane Kirkby	136
9	Community Cookbooks, Women and the 'Building of the Civil Society' in Australia, 1900–38 Sarah Black	154
10	Remembering Cyprus: 'Traditional' Cypriot Cooking and Food Preparation Practices in the Memories of Greek Cypriot Emigrants Tina Kalivas	171
11	'Just Sugar'? Food and Landscape along Queensland's Sunshine Coast Chris McConville	188
	Index	206