

NEW RESEARCH IN MUSEUM STUDIES
An International Series

4

Museums and the
Appropriation of Culture

Edited by Susan Pearce

THE ATHLONE PRESS
London & Atlantic Highlands, NJ

Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Plates	viii
Editorial Introduction Susan M. Pearce	1
Part One
1 'PLEASE DON'T TOUCH THE CEILING': the culture of appropriation Mary Beard and John Henderson	5
2 Museum theatre in the 1990s: trail-blazer or camp-follower? Jeanne Cannizzo and David Parry	43
3 Childhood's pattern: appropriation by generation Brian Shepherd	65
4 Presenting a divisive culture: two exhibitions at the Ulster Folk and Transport Museum Anthony Buckley	84
5 Appropriating the visitor by addressing the second person Parker B. Potter Jr	103
6 Mobile museums in India Sunjay Jain	129
7 Labour history in museums: development and direction Kevin Moore	142
8 Briton, Boer and Black in savage South Africa Nichola Johnson	174

9	An archaeology of the DeWitt Wallace Gallery at Colonial Williamsburg Mark P. Leone	198
10	Museums and indigenous peoples in Canada John Carter	213
Part Two
Reviews edited by Eilean Hooper-Greenhill
	Museums and Galleries and their Audiences: a Literature Review Eilean Hooper-Greenhill	229
	The museum and education: a new gallery at the British Museum, London John Reeve	233
	Snibston Discovery Park: a review from an Indian perspective Ibrahim Yahya	235
	The Alchemy of Play: Eureka! the Museum for Children Colin Mulberg and Morna Hinton	238
	Archaeologists and Aesthetes , by Ian Jenkins Susan Pearce	244
	Call for papers for forthcoming volumes	246
	Editorial policy	246
	Notes on contributors	247
	Index	253