

OST - WEST - DIALOG 8

Gabriele Gorzka, Ute Lanzendorf (eds.)

Europeanising Doctoral Studies The Russian Federation and Germany on the Way to Bologna

kassel university press

U N I K A S S E L
V E R S I T Ä T
Ost-West-Wissenschaftszentrum

Contents

Foreword Gabriele Gorzka	7
Opening Address Michael Schlicht	11
I. The Political Vision of Doctoral Studies
The European Vision – Doctoral Studies as a Link between the European Education Area and the European Research and Innovation Area Ute Lanzendorf	17
Future Challenges for Doctoral Studies in Germany Ulrich Teichler	25
Today’s Higher Education in Russia: The State of the Art and Some Modern Tendencies Vadim B. Kasevich	39

II. The Status Quo of Doctoral Studies

Doctoral Education in Germany within the European Framework 51
Barbara Kehm

Recent Developments in Doctoral Education in the Russian Federation 71
Evgeni A. Knyazev

III. Initiatives and Best Practice for Developing Doctoral Studies

Re-designing Doctoral Education 83
Vladimir N. Troyan

Development of Third-Level Education in Technical Universities 87
Sergey F. Podlesny

Conditions for a Successful Doctorate: General Framework and Motivation in Germany 91
Max Reinhardt

Standards for Doctoral Programmes: Are there Organizational Determinants to Successfully Support Doctoral Candidates? 103
Nicole Thaller

Contributors 119