

☆

SPIRITUALITY IN HIGHER EDUCATION:
AUTOETHNOGRAPHIES

☆

Heewon Chang
Drick Boyd

Walnut Creek, California

CONTENTS ☆

Preface	7
Chapter 1. Autoethnography as Method for Spirituality Research in the Academy Heewon Chang	11
Part I: Spirituality and Personhood	31
Chapter 2. “Now You See Her, Now You Don’t”: The Integration of Mothering, Spirituality, and Work Sally Galman	33
Chapter 3. Finding Calcutta: Confronting the Secular Imperative Mary Poplin	51
Chapter 4. By a Crooked Star: Developing Spirituality within the Context of a Faith-Based Institution Ruth Anna Abigail	69
Chapter 5. Spirituality and Professional Collegiality: Esprit de “Core” Eileen R. O’Shea, Roben Torosyan, Tracey Robert, Ingeborg Haug, Margaret Wills, and Betsy A. Bowen	87
Part II: Spirituality and Teaching	109
Chapter 6. Helping College Students Discover Meaning through Spirituality Robert J. Nash and Monique Swaby	111

Chapter 7.	What's God Got to Do with It? Teaching Personal Narrative at a Faith-Based Institution	127
	Joyce C. Munro
Chapter 8.	Pedagogy and Spirituality in Higher Education: Perspectives, Practices, and Possibilities	147
	Erlene Grise-Owens
Chapter 9.	Spiritual Introspection and Praxis in Teaching and Assessment	163
	Kathy-Ann C. Hernandez
Part III:	Spirituality, Scholarship, and Outreach	181
Chapter 10.	Studying Spirituality and Leadership: A Personal Journey	183
	Faith Wambura Ngunjiri
Chapter 11.	Listening to the Spiritual Voices of Others in Research	199
	Joseph J. Saggio
Chapter 12.	Teaching Religious Tolerance and Understanding	219
	Claude F. Jacobs
Chapter 13.	Weaving Activism, Faith, and Scholarship	237
	Drick Boyd
	Index	253
	About Editors and Authors	261