

Fairness in Access to Higher Education in a Global Perspective

Reconciling Excellence, Efficiency, and Justice

Edited by

Heinz-Dieter Meyer

State University of New York, Albany, USA

Edward P. St. John

University of Michigan, USA

Maia Chankseliani

Oxford University, UK

Lina Uribe

Comfacauca University, Colombia

SENSE PUBLISHERS
ROTTERDAM/BOSTON/TAIPEI

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Preface	ix
Introduction
The Crisis of Higher Education Access—A Crisis of Justice Heinz-Dieter Meyer, Edward P. St. John, Maia Chankseliani & Lina Uribe	1
Part I: Fairness in Higher Education Access—Normative and Historical Perspectives
Reasoning about Fairness in Access to Higher Education: Common Sense, Normative, and Institutional Perspectives Heinz-Dieter Meyer	15
A Vision of Equal Opportunity in Postsecondary Education Lesley A. Jacobs	41
The Legacy of the GI Bill: Equal Opportunity in U.S. Higher Education after WWII Edward P. St. John	57
Part II: Excellence, Equity, Effectiveness—A Comparative Look at the Policies of Access
The Finnish Model of Higher Education Access: Does Egalitarianism Square With Excellence? Marja Jalava	79
Chinese Higher Education: Expansion and Social Justice Since 1949 Yan Luo & Po Yang	95
Access Policy and Social Justice in Higher Education: The Colombian Case Lina Uribe	111
Globalization and Access to Higher Education in Korea Jiyun Kim & Hee Sun Kim	129
The Effects of College Cost and Financial Aid in Germany: Why Are Students Sensitive to College Costs in a Low-Cost / High-Aid System? Anna J. Kroth	153

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Higher Education Access in Post-Soviet Georgia: Overcoming a Legacy of Corruption Maia Chankseliani	171
The Quest for Access, Equity and Social Justice in Higher Education in South Africa Jan Nieuwenhuis & Chika Sehoole	189
Brazil's Radical Approach to Expanding Access for Underrepresented College Students Patricia Somers, Marilia Morosini, Miriam Pan & James E. Cofer, Sr.	203
Income-Contingent Repayment As Public Policy: The Applicability of the Australian Higher Education Finance Model to the American Context Christopher J. Rasmussen	223
Part III: Resistance to Managerialism: Chile and California
Causes and Consequences of the Student Protests in Chile Oscar Espinoza & Luis Eduardo González	239
Alternatives to Managerialism: Defending Public Higher Education in California Anna Schwenck	259
Part IV: Policy Changes Towards Greater Fairness
Fairness in Access to Higher Education: Towards a Global Public Debate Heinz-Dieter Meyer, Edward P. St. John, Marja Jalava, Anna J. Kroth & Patricia Somers	277
Reconciling Efficiency With Excellence and Fairness: Proposals for Policy and Practice Edward P. St. John & Heinz-Dieter Meyer	289
A Note on the Editors	309