

Coping with Gender Inequities

Critical Conversations of Women Faculty

Edited by Sherwood Thompson and
Pam Parry

ROWMAN & LITTLEFIELD
Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

Foreword	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	1
Sherwood Thompson and Pam Parry
1 “Particularly” Good for the Women: “Differend” in the Academy	5
Ginny Whitehouse and Krista Kimmel
2 Achieving Tenure and Promotion	17
Simone C. O. Conceição
3 Family-Friendly Working Conditions	31
Karen Christopher
4 Faculty Perspectives of Teaching Online	43
Shirley Peganoff O’Brien
5 Women of Color in Higher Education: Asian, Latina, and African American Women as Teachers, Scholars, and Leaders	57
Carolyn A. Lin, Diana I. Rios, and Ruth Washington
6 Faculty of Color and Student Relations: The Role of Intersectionality on Classroom Interactions for Female Faculty of Color	71
Edith Fraser
7 Establishing Effective Mentoring Relationships, Part I	77
Donna Gibson McCrary
8 Establishing Effective Mentoring Relationships, Part II	89
Martina Nieswandt
9 Debunking Myths: Academic Community Members’ Perspectives on Black Women Faculty	105
Crystal Renée Chambers
10 Triumvirate of Academia	123
Rebecca Fredrickson, Sarah McMahan, and Holly Hansen-Thomas
11 Academic Advancement and Leadership	137
Keisha M. Love

12	Injustice Revealed: An African American Female Faculty Member Dealing with De-professionalism, Inequalities, and Prejudice at One Appalachian Regional University	149
	Doris L. Crawford
13	Brown Girls in the Ivory Tower: Reflections on Race, Gender, and Coming of Age in Academia	159
	Janaka B. Lewis
	Conclusion	171
	Pam Parry and Sherwood Thompson
	Contributor Bios	175