
Nijmegen Studies in Development and Cultural Change

Volume 13

The Politics of Ethnographic Reading and Writing

Confrontations of Western and Indigenous Views

Edited by
Henk Driessen

Verlag breitenbach Publishers
Saarbrücken · Fort Lauderdale 1993

CONTENTS

	page
Preface	v
Contents	vii
 Henk Driessen, Introduction	 1
 Mary Bouquet, Being British and Being English. Disclosing a Hidden Ethnography from the British Kinship Classics in a Mid-1980's Portuguese Pedagogical Setting	 8
 Eric Venbrux, 'You caan't win'. Australian Aborigines and the Anglo-Australian Criminal Justice System	 40
 Léon Buskens, Islamic Commentaries and French Codes. The Confrontation and Accommodation of two Forms of Textualization of Family Law in Morocco	 65
 Huub de Jonge, Western and Indonesian Views on the Abangan-Santri Division in Javanese Society. The Reception of Geertz's 'The Religion of Java'	 101
 Jean Kommers, Words with a Certain Fixed Value. The Concepts of 'Primitive' and 'Islam' in the Colonial Literature about West Africa	 124
 Longina Jakubowska, Writing About Eastern Europe. Perspectives from Ethnography and Anthropology	 143
 Dimitra Gefou-Madianou, Mirroring Ourselves through Western Texts. The Limits of an Indigenous Anthropology	 160
 List of Contributors	 182