

Discourse and Discrimination

Edited by Geneva Smitherman-Donaldson and
Teun A. van Dijk

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY PRESS

DETROIT 1988

Contents

Contributors	7
Introduction: Words that Hurt	11
Geneva Smitherman-Donaldson and Teun A. van Dijk
1. Newsmagazines, Public Policy, and the Black Agenda	23
Jack L. Daniel and Anita L. Allen
2. "The Cosby Show" and American Racial Discourse	46
John D. H. Downing
3. Some Theoretical Notions and Preliminary Research Concerning Derogatory Ethnic Labels	74
Jeff Gremberg, S. L. Kirkland, and Tom Pyszczynski
4. Minorities and Social Control in the Newsroom: Thirty Years after Breed	93
Sherrie Mazingo
5. The British New Right's "Enemy Within": The Antiracists	131
Gill Seidel
6. Discriminatory Discourse on Afro-American Speech	144
Geneva Smitherman-Donaldson
7. From "Rights" to "Needs": Official Discourse and the "Welfarization" of Race	176
Mary Sykes
8. Storytelling and Classroom Discrimination	206
Orlando L. Taylor and Maťyón M. Matsuda
9. How "They" Hit the Headlines: Ethnic Minorities in the Press	221
Teun A. van Dijk
Index	263