

FOLKLORE AND FOLK MEDICINES

John Scarborough, editor

Symposium presented at the March, 1986, AIHP
Annual Meeting held in San Francisco, California

American Institute of the History of Pharmacy
Madison, Wisconsin
1987

Contents

John Scarborough	Introduction 1
Jerry Stannard	Medieval Herbalism and Post-Medieval Folk Medicine 10
John Scarborough	Adaptation of Folk Medicines in the Formal Materia Medica of Classical Antiquity 21
John M. Riddle	Folk Tradition and Folk Medicine: Recognition of Drugs in Classical Antiquity 33
Eric Howard Christianson	The Search for Diagnostic and Therapeutic Authority in the Early American Healer's Encounter with "The Animals which inhabit the Human Stomach and Intestines" 62
David L. Cowen	The Folk Medicine of the Pennsylvania Dutch 86
Varro E. Tyler	Some Potentially Useful Drugs Identified in a Study of Indiana Folk Medicine 98
John K. Crellin	Folklore and Medicines—Medical Interfaces: A Kaleidoscope and Challenge 110