

Families in East and West

Socialization process and kinship ties

edited by

REUBEN HILL and RENÉ KÖNIG

under the auspices of the International Sociological Association

Mouton
Paris • The Hague

Table of contents

Foreword by REUBEN HILL	VII
List of contributors	XIII
 Part I: Problems of socialization
1. WILLIAM CAUDILL – Consequences for children of varying family patterns. Report on the work of part I	3
2. KAZUO AOI et ALII – Comparative study of home discipline: rural – urban, sex and age differences	12
3. WILLIAM CAUDILL and HELEN WEINSTEIN – Maternal care and infant behavior in Japanese and American urban middle class families	39
4. EDWARD C. DEVEREUX JR. – Socialization in cross-cultural perspective. Comparative study of England, Germany and the United States	72
5. JOHN L. FISCHER – Linguistic socialization: Japan and the United States	107
6. WILLIAM J. GOODE – Family systems and social mobility	120
7. TATSUMI MAKINO et ALII – Juvenile delinquency and home training	137
8. KASEM UDYANIN and PRASERT YAMKLINFUNG – Family status and parent-youth relations	152
9. WONG SHAU-LAM – Social change and parent-child relations in Hong-Kong	167
10. KATSUMI YOKOE – Historical trends in home discipline	175

XII Table of contents

Part II: The relations between the family and extended kin

11. ROBERT O. BLOOD JR. – Social change and kinship pattern	189
12. JAI-SEUK CHOI – Comparative study on the traditional families in Korea, Japan and China	202
13. PIERRE DE BIE – Family relationships: symbiotic and dominance networks and functions	211
14. ERIK GRØNSETH – Notes on the historical development of the relation between nuclear family, kinship system and the wider social structure in Norway	225
15. SEIICHI KITANO – Dozoku and kindred in a Japanese rural society	248
16. GERRIT A. KOOY – Rural nuclear family life in contemporary Western society.	270
17. TAKASHI KOYAMA – Rural-urban comparison of kinship relations in Japan	318
18. MANGAP LEE – Consanguineous group and its function in the Korean community	338
19. EUGENE LITWAK and JOSEFINA FIGUEIRA – Technological innovation and ideal forms of family structure in an industrial democratic society	348
20. PETER MARRIS – African families and the process of change	397
21. ANDRÉE MICHEL – La famille urbaine et la parenté en France	410
22. JOHN M. MOGEY – The Negro family system in the United States	442
23. DHIRENDRA NARAIN – Interpersonal relationship in the Hindu family	454
24. MARVIN B. SUSSMANN – The urban kin networks in the formulation of family theory	481
25. YONINA TALMON-GARBER – Social change and kinship ties	504

Part III: Problems of methodology

26. ROBERT O. BLOOD JR. et ALII – Comparative analysis of family power structure: problems of measurement and interpretation	525
27. REUBEN HILL – The three generation research design: method for studying family and social change	536
28. MURRAY A. STRAUS – Methodology of a laboratory experimental study of families in three societies	552
29. ROBERT F. WINCH – Determinants of interpersonal influence in the late adolescent male: theory and design of research	578
30. RENÉ KÖNIG – Old problems and new queries in family sociology	602
Index of names	623