

LANGUAGE
and
THEME

Essays on African Literature

Emmanuel N. Obiechina

HOWARD UNIVERSITY PRESS

Washington, D.C.

1990

CONTENTS

PREFACE	vii
1 The Growth of Written Literature in English-Speaking West Africa	1
2 Amos Tutuola and the Oral Tradition	21
3 Language and the African Novel	53
4 Perceptions of Colonialism in West African Literature	68
5 Politics in the Early African Novel	93
6 Post-Independence Disillusionment	121
7 Victimization as a Theme	150
8 Nsukka: Literature in an African Environment	182
9 Christopher Okigbo: Poet of Destiny	207
INDEX	241