

EDITED BY Anthony Forge

Primitive Art & Society

Sondersammelgebiet
Volks- & Völkerkunde

in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

Published for
The Wenner-Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research Inc.
by Oxford University Press

London · 1973 · New York

Contents

Preface	Raymond Firth	v
Introduction	Anthony Forge	xiii
1	Art History and Anthropology: Some Comparisons of Methodology	Robert Goldwater 1
2	Adornment and Nudity in Tropical Africa Denise Paulme	11
3	Tikopia Art and Society	Raymond Firth 25
4	Kilenge Big Man Art	Philip Dark 49
5	Art and History in Ghana	Roy Sieber 70
6	Tapa Techniques and Tapa Patterns in Polynesia: A Regional Differentiation	Simon Kooijman 97
7	The Role of the Individual Indian Artist Frederick J. Dockstader	113
8	Mask Makers and Myth in Western Liberia Warren L. d'Azevedo	126
9	In Search of Meaning in African Art	William Fagg 151
10	Style and Meaning in Sepik Art	Anthony Forge 169
11	The Spatial Presentation of Cosmic Order in Walbiri Iconography	Nancy D. Munn 193
12	Levels of Communication and Problems of Taboo in the Appreciation of Primitive Art	Edmund Leach 221
13	Style, Grace, and Information in Primitive Art Gregory Bateson	235
14	Talking about Art and Primitive Society	W. T. Jones 256
	Index of Authors, Artists, and Authorities	279
	Index of Subjects	282