

Political Anthropology, Volume 7

OUTWITTING
THE STATE

Edited by
Peter Skalník

With a foreword by
Henri J. M. Claessen

Transaction Publishers
New Brunswick (U.S.A.) and London (U.K.)

Contents

Foreword	vii
Henri J. M. Claessen
Preface	xiii
1. Outwitting the State: An Introduction	1
Peter Skalnik
2. Ponapean Chieftainship in the Era of the Nation-State	23
Glenn Petersen
3. Central Borneo and Its Relations with Coastal Malay Sultanates	41
Jérôme Rousseau
4. Transformations of State Power in Kelantan and Pahang, West Malaysia	51
William D. Wilder
5. State Formation and the Incorporation of Nomads: Local Change and Continuity among Jordanian Bedouin	65
Joseph M. Hiatt
6. Ideology of Reciprocity between the James Bay Cree and the Whiteman State	81
Colin Scott
7. "There Is Always Somewhere to Go . . .": Russian Old Believers and the State	109
David Z. Scheffel
8. Responses of the Hausa Society to Participatory Development Policies of the Republic of Niger	121
Lucien R. Bäck
9. Outwitting Ghana: Pluralism of Political Culture in Nanun	145
Peter Skalnik
About the Contributors	169
Index	171