
The Politics of Ethnic Conflict Regulation

Case Studies of Protracted Ethnic Conflicts

Edited by John McGarry and Brendan O'Leary

London and New York

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xi

1 Introduction: the macro-political regulation of ethnic conflict	1
John McGarry and Brendan O'Leary
2 Canadian responses to ethnic conflict: consociationalism, federalism and control	41
S.J.R. Noel
3 Ethnic conflict in the Soviet Union and its successor states	62
Dominic Lieven and John McGarry
4 Ethnic conflict in India: a case-study of Punjab	84
Gurharpal Singh
5 Malaysia: Malay political hegemony and 'coercive consociationalism'	106
Diane Mauzy
6 Containment or regulation? The British approach to ethnic conflict in Northern Ireland	128
Brendan O'Duffy
7 Burundi in comparative perspective: dimensions of ethnic strife	151
René Lemarchand

8 The rise and fall of Yugoslavia	172
George Schöpflin
9 Spain: peripheral nationalism and state response	204
Michael Keating
10 South Africa: The opening of the apartheid mind	226
Heribert Adam and Kogila Moodley
11 Balance and ethnic conflict in Fiji	251
Ralph R. Premdas
12 Belgium: the variability of ethnic relations	275
Maureen Covell
Bibliography	296
Index	313