

APPROACHES TO THE AFRICAN NOVEL

ESSAYS IN ANALYSIS

Charles E. Nnolim

Saros International Publishers
London. Lagos. Port Harcourt

CONTENTS

Introduction7
The Form and Function of the Folk Tradition in Achebe's Novels	16
Jungian Archetypes and the Main Characters in Oyono's Une Vie de Boy	28
From Nostalgia to Myth: An Archetypal Interpretation of Camara Laye's The Dark Child	35
Craft in Marxist Garb: Bread, the Social Issue in Sembene's God's Bits of Wood	49
Background Setting: Key to the Structure of Ngugi's The River Between	66
Structure and Theme in Ngugi Wa Thiong'o's A Grain of Wheat	79
African Utopia and Ali Mazrui's The Trial of Christopher Okigbo	95
Dialectic as Form: Pejorism in the Novels of Armah	110
Structure and Theme in Munonye's Oil Man of Obange	128
In Search of Aniebo: New Craft in The Journey Within	139
Saro-Wiwa's World and His Craft in Sozaboy	158
Ben Okri: Writer as Artist	173
EPILOGUE: Trends in the Nigerian Novel	189