

Shifting Contexts

Transformations in Anthropological
Knowledge

Edited by Marilyn Strathern

London and New York

Contents

List of figures	viii
Notes on contributors	ix
Series editor's preface	xi
Foreword Shifting contexts	1
1 Forgotten knowledge	13
Mary Douglas
2 Exhibiting knowledge: the trees of Dubois, Haeckel, Jesse and Rivers at the Pithecanthropus centennial exhibition	31
Mary Bouquet
3 Building, dwelling, living: how animals and people make themselves at home in the world	57
Tim Ingold
4 Transformations of identity in Sepik warfare	81
Simon Harrison
5 Human rights and moral knowledge: arguments of accountability in Zimbabwe	99
Richard Werbner
6 Globalisation and the new technologies of knowing: anthropological calculus or chaos?	117
Angela P. Cheater
7 Cultures in collision: the emergence of a new localism in academic research	131
Stephen Hill and Tim Turpin
8 The nice thing about culture is that everyone has it	153
Marilyn Strathern
Afterword Relocations	177
Name index	186
Subject index	190