

Tourists and Tourism

---

Identifying with People and Places

EDITED BY

Simone Abram, Jacqueline Waldren and Donald V.L. Macleod

Oxford • New York

Contents

---

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction: Tourists and Tourism – Identifying with People and Places Simone Abram and Jacqueline Waldren	1
1 Island Involvement and the Evolving Tourist Tamara Kohn	13
2 Performing for Tourists in Rural France Simone Abram	29
3 We Are Not Tourists – We Live Here Jacqueline Waldren	51
4 More than the Beatles: Popular Music, Tourism and Urban Regeneration Sara Cohen	71
5 Whose New Orleans? Music’s Place in the Packaging of New Orleans for Tourism Connie Zeanah Atkinson	91
6 The Ideal Village: Interactions through Tourism in Central Anatolia Hazel Tucker	107
7 ‘Alternative’ Tourists on a Canary Island Donald V. L. Macleod	129
8 Mas’ Identity: Tourism and Global and Local Aspects of Trinidad Carnival Niels Sampath	149
9 Representations of Nepal Ken Teague	173
10 The South-east Asian ‘Living Museum’ and its Antecedents Michael Hitchcock, Nick Stanley and Siu, King Chung	197

11	Packaging the Wild: Tourism Development in Alaska
	Mark Nuttall	223
	Index	239