

Muslim European Youth

Reproducing ethnicity, religion, culture

Edited by

STEVEN VERTOVEC

ALISDAIR ROGERS

Ashgate

Aldershot · Brookfield USA · Singapore · Sydney

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
1 Introduction Steven Vertovec and Alisdair Rogers	1
2 Islam in France: Social Challenge or Challenge of Secularism? Jocelyne Cesari	25
3 Islam and Interest Struggle: Religious Collective Action Among Turkish Muslims in the Netherlands Thijl Sunier	39
4 Imagining a British Muslim Identification Yunas Samad	59
5 Islam and Socialization Among Turkish Minorities in Denmark: Between Culturalism and Cultural Complexity Lars Pedersen	77
6 Young Muslims in Keighley, West Yorkshire: Cultural Identity, Context and ‘Community’ Steven Vertovec	87
7 Continuity and Change: Young Turks in London Talip Kucukcan	103

8	Gender and Generation: Young Muslims in Copenhagen Yvonne Mørck	133
9	Good Girls, Bad Girls: Moroccan and Turkish Runaway Girls in the Netherlands Lenie Brouwer	145
10	Growing Up as a Muslim in Germany: Religious Socialization Among Turkish Migrant Families Lale Yalçın-Heckmann	167
11	Educational Needs of Muslim Children in Britain: Accommodation or Neglect? Marie Parker-Jenkins and Kaye Frances Haw	193