edited by

Kayleen Hazlehurst
Cameron Hazlehurst

GANGS AND YOUTH SUBCULTURES

International Explorations

FID SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

Transaction Publishers
New Brunswick (U.S.A.) and London (U.K.)

Contents

Illustrations vii

Acknowledgements ix

1 Gangs in Cross-Cultural Perspective
Cameron Hazlehurst and Kayleen M. Hazlehurst 1

Europe

2 Post-Modernism and Youth Subcultures in Britain in the 1990s
Roger Burke and Ros Sunley 35

3 German Youth Subcultures: History, Typology and Gender-Orientations
Joachim Kersten 67

4 Criminal Heirs—Organised Crime and Russia's Youth
Paddy Rawlinson 95

North America

5 Vietnamese Youth Gangs in the Context of Multiple Marginality and the Los Angeles Youth Gang Phenomenon
James Diego Vigil and Steve Chong Yun 117

6 Navajo Nation Gang Formation and Intervention Initiatives
Marianne O. Nielsen, James W. Zion, and Julie A. Hailer 141

7 Street Gangs and Criminal Business Organisations: A Canadian Perspective
Robert M. Gordon 165

Australia

8 Masculinity and Violence: An Ethnographic Exploration of the Bodgies, 1948–1958
Judith Bessant and Rob Watts 189

9 Media Depictions and Public Discourses on Juvenile 'Gangs' in Melbourne, 1989–1991
Ian Warren and Megan Aumair 221

Oceania

10 'Pulling the Teams out of the Dark Room': The Politicisation of the Mongrel Mob
Pahmi Winter 245

11 Urban Raskolism and Criminal Groups in Papua New Guinea
Sinclair Dinnen 267

South Africa

12 Rituals, Rights, and Tradition: Rethinking Youth Programs in South Africa
Don Pinnock with Mara Douglas-Hamilton 307

Index 343

Editors and Contributors 349