

Anthropological Theory Today

Edited by Henrietta L. Moore

Polity Press

Contents

The Contributors	vii
1 Anthropological Theory at the Turn of the Century Henrietta L. Moore	1
2 From Private Virtue to Public Vice James G. Carrier and Daniel Miller	24
3 Clash of Civilizations or Asian Liberalism? An Anthropology of the State and Citizenship Aihwa Ong	48
4 The Economies of Violence and the Violence of Economies Catherine Lutz and Donald Nonini	73
5 Toward an Ethics of the Open Subject: Writing Culture in Good Conscience Debbora Battaglia	114
6 Whatever Happened to Women and Men? Gender and other Crises in Anthropology Henrietta L. Moore	151
7 The Body's Career in Anthropology Thomas J. Csordas	172

8	Human Cognition and Cultural Evolution
	Pascal Boyer	206
9	Psychoanalysis and Anthropology: On the Temporality of Analysis
	James Weiner	234
10	Becoming Undisciplined: Anthropology and Cultural Studies
	Nicholas Thomas	262
	Index	280