

Essays in Indian Ethnomusicology

Ashok D. Ranade

Munshiram Manoharlal
Publishers Pvt. Ltd.

Contents

Preface	vii
1 Categories of Music	1
2 Devotional Music in India	26
3 Perspective Studies in Music	36
4 Researches in Folk Performances	44
5 Music and Symbolism	51
6 Performance and Peripherals	63
7 Order in Music	74
8 Music and Religion	79
9 Myth and Music in India	101
10 Performing Music: An Instructional Model	115
11 Music and its Non-musical Users	123
12 Music, Growth and Aging	130
13 Performing Arts and Narrative	146
14 Notation: A Wider Perspective	156
15 Limits, Borders and Boundaries: Performance	163
16 The 'Felt' Space in Music and Theatre	179
17 Time, Laya and Tala: Perspectives in Cultural Musicology, Musical Aesthetics and Musicology	198
18 Colour and Hindustani Music	205
19 Ragamala-paintings: A Musicological Perspective	216
20 The Indo-Portuguese Performing Experience	227
21 Organisation of Time: Oral and Written Word	237
22 Training in Voice and Speech: One Indian Approach	253
23 The Changing Colour of Patronage	262
24 Chitra, Pata, and Sangeet in India: An Aesthetic Appraisal	275
25 Cinematic Structure and Music in India	290
26 The Singing Voice: Some Asian Perspectives	298
27 Wilderness, Rama-Ramayana and Music	310
Index	340