

Witchcraft Dialogues

ANTHROPOLOGICAL AND PHILOSOPHICAL EXCHANGES

Edited by
George Clement Bond and Diane M. Ciekawy

Ohio University Center for International Studies
Research in International Studies
Africa Series No. 76
Athens

Contents

Preface, vii

Introduction: Contested Domains in the Dialogues of “Witchcraft”

George Clement Bond and Diane M. Ciekawy, 1

1. African Witchcraft: From Ethnography to Critique
Elias Bongmba, 39

2. “Witches” as Superior Intellectuals:
Challenging a Cross-Cultural Superstition
Barry Hallen, 80

3. Sorcery Forces of Life and Death among the
Yaka of Congo
René Devisch, 101

4. Ancestors and Witches: Explanations and the Ideology of Individual Power in Northern Zambia
George Clement Bond, 131

5. Utsai as Ethical Discourse: A Critique of Power
from Mijikenda in Coastal Kenya
Diane M. Ciekawy, 158

6. Truth-on-Balance: Knowing the Opaque Other in Tswapong Wisdom Divination
Richard Werbner, 190
7. Witchcraft in Modern Africa as Virtualized Boundary
Conditions of the Kinship Order
Wim van Binsbergen, 212
8. Epistemological and Ideological Issues about
Witchcraft in African Studies:
A Response to René Devisch,
Elias Bongmba, and Richard Werbner
E. C. Eze, 264
9. Witchcraft and Racecraft:
Invisible Ontology and Its Sensible Manifestations
Karen E. Fields, 283
- Conclusions: Fabricating the Occult, Distancing the Familiar
George Clement Bond and Diane M. Ciekawy, 316
- Contributors, 333
- Index, 336