

A Man's World? Changing Men's Practices in a Globalized World

edited by Bob Pease and Keith Pringle

Zed Books

LONDON • NEW YORK

Contents

Acknowledgements /vii

Contributors /viii

- 1 Introduction: Studying Men's Practices and Gender Relations in a Global Context 1
Bob Pease and Keith Pringle

Part I Transnational Contexts 19

- 2 Global Masculinities: Restoration and Resistance 21
Michael S. Kimmel
- 3 The White Ribbon Campaign: Involving Men and Boys in Ending Global Violence Against Women 38
Michael Kaufman
- 4 Adopting a Global Perspective on Fatherhood 52
Graeme Russell
- 5 Global Men's Health and the Crisis of Western Masculinity 69
Ben Wadham

Part II National Contexts 83

- 6 Nation, State and Welfare: The Cases of Finland and the UK 85
Jeff Hearn
- 7 Men as Social Workers in the UK: Professional Locations and Gendering Global Discourses of Welfare 103
Alastair Christie
- 8 Men and Masculinities in Late-modern Ireland 118
Harry Ferguson

9	Men's Practices in Prostitution: The Case of Sweden Sven-Axel Månsson	135
10	Towards the End of 'Black Macho' in the United States: Preface to a (Pro)Womanist Vision of Black Manhood Gary L. Lemons	150
11	Masculinities in Brazil: The Case of Brazilian Television Advertisements Benedito Medrado, Jorge Lyra and Marko Monteiro	163
12	Unlearning Machismo: Men Changing Men in Post- revolutionary Nicaragua Patrick Welsh	177
13	Moving Beyond Mateship: Reconstructing Australian Men's Practices Bob Pease	191
14	Gendering Men's Services in Hong Kong: Backlash or Pursuit of Gender Equality? Chan Kam Wah	205
15	Saris, Men and Non-violence: Reflections on Indian Masculinity Siddhartha	219
16	Cultural Practices of Masculinity in Post-apartheid South Africa Ira Horowitz	231
17	Afterword: A Man's World? Rethinking Commonality and Diversity in Men's Practices Keith Pringle and Bob Pease	245
	Index	253