

Language and Social Identity

Edited by Richard K. Blot

Foreword by Charles L. Briggs

---

PRAEGER

Westport, Connecticut
London

Contents

Foreword	xi
Charles L. Briggs
Acknowledgments	xix
1. Introduction	1
Richard K. Blot
2. Language and Indians' Place in Chiapas, Mexico: A Testimony from the Tzotzil Maya	11
Gary H. Gossen
3. The Deficits of History: Terms of Violence in an Arapaço Myth Complex from the Brazilian Northwest Amazon	39
Janet M. Chernela and Eric J. Leed
4. Giving Voice to the Hill Spirit: Mayan Visionary Testimony in Southern Belize	57
Jerry Kelly
5. "We Don't Speak Catalan Because We Are Marginalized": Ethnic and Class Meanings of Language in Barcelona	85
Kathryn A. Woolard

6. The Politics of Representation: Class and Identity in Cochabamba, Bolivia María L. Lagos	105
7. The Narrative Construction of E'ñapa Ethnicity María Eugenia Villalón	125
8. Ebonics, Language, and Power Michael H. Long	147
9. Containing Language Difference: Advertising in Hispanic Magazine Bonnie Urciuoli	171
10. The Other Tongue, the Other Voice: Language and Gender in the French Caribbean Ellen M. Schnepel	199
11. Reclaiming Traditions, Remaking Community: Politics, Language, and Place among the Tolowa of Northwest California James Collins	225
12. "Word-Sound-Power": Language, Social Identity, and the Worldview of Rastafari John W. Pulis	243
13. Passionate Speech and Literate Talk in Grenada George Mentore	261
Index	283
About the Contributors	291