

NATIONAL HEALTHS:
GENDER, SEXUALITY
AND HEALTH IN A CROSS-
CULTURAL CONTEXT

Edited by
Michael Worton and Nana Wilson-Tagoe

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	v
Contributors	vi
List of illustrations	x
Introduction Michael Worton	1
Overview Nana Wilson-Tagoe	21
Part I: THE POLITICS OF SICKNESS AND HEALTH
Chapter 1 Female Genital Mutilation: Contesting the Right to Speak of Women's Bodies in Africa and the West Nahid Toubia	31
Chapter 2 Albanian Masculinities, Sex-Work and Migration: Homosexuality, AIDS and Other Moral Threats Nicola Mai	45
Chapter 3 The Semantics and Politics of Childbearing and Motherhood in Contemporary African Literature Nana Wilson-Tagoe	59
Chapter 4 What Difference Did Empire Make? Sex, Gender and Sanitary Reform in the British Empire Philippa Levine	71
Chapter 5 Dangerous Blood: Menstruation, Medicine and Myth in Early Modern England Margaret Healy	83
Part II: THE REPRESENTATION OF SICKNESS AND HEALTH
Chapter 6 Remembrance of Health Lost: Dis/Figuring Africa in European AIDS Writing James N Agar	97
Chapter 7 Vulnerable Margins: The Iconography of Blood, Dirt and Disease in the Early Twentieth-Century South African Settler Novel Lynda Morgan	109

Chapter 8	Sex in a Hot Climate: Moral Degeneracy and Erotic Excess in The Story Of Jan Daraa Rachel Harrison	121
Chapter 9	Some Fundamental Riddles of Cholera: Sex, Sodomy and Representations of the Fundament George S Rousseau	137
Chapter 10	Behold the (Sick) Man Michael Worton	151
Part III: LEARNING FROM SICKNESS AND HEALTH
Chapter 11	Infectious Social Change: Tuberculosis and Exile among Tibetan Refugees in Dharamsala Audrey Prost	169
Chapter 12	Angry Women and the Evolution of Chinese Medicine Shigehisa Kurlyama	179
Chapter 13	Reading Gender in Ancient Egyptian Healing Papyri Stephen Quirke	191
Chapter 14	René and the 'Mal du Siècle': A Literary Role Model for the Negotiation of Problematic Sexual Identity in Nineteenth-Century Europe - The Cases of Custine and Armiel Caroline Warman	201
Chapter 15	Poetry, Pictures and the Sexual Demographics of Health Deborah Kirklin	211
Index		221