

The Character of Kingship

Edited by Declan Quigley

Oxford • New York

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
List of Contributors	ix
1 Introduction: The Character of Kingship Declan Quigley	1
2 Forms of Sacralized Power in Africa Luc de Heusch	25
3 Sacred King, Sacrificial Victim, Surrogate Victim or Frazer, Hocart, Girard Lucien Scubla	39
4 A Reply to Lucien Scubla Luc de Heusch	63
5 Tragedy, Ritual and Power in Nilotic Regicide: The Regicidal Dramas of the Eastern Nilotes of Sudan in Comparative Perspective Simon Simonse	67
6 The Transgressive Nature of Kingship in Caste Organization: Monstrous Royal Doubles in Nepal Marie Lecomte-Tilouine	101
7 Kingship and Untouchability Declan Quigley	123
8 Kingship and Caste in Africa: History, Diffusion and Evolution Tal Tamari	141

9	King House: The Mobile Polity in Northern Ghana Susan Drucker-Brown	171
10	Kings and Tribes in East India: The Internal Political Dimension Burkhard Schnepel	187
11	Japanese Monarchy in Historical and Comparative Perspective Emiko Ohnuki-Tierney	209
12	Chiefs and Kings in Polynesia Henri J. M. Claessen	233
	Index	251