

CULTURAL HERITAGE AND CONTEMPORARY CHANGE
SERIES IVA, EASTERN AND CENTRAL EUROPE, VOLUME 24

General Editor
George F. McLean

Romanian Cultural Identity
and Education for Civil Society

Romanian Philosophical Studies, V

edited by
Magdalena Dumitrana

THE COUNCIL FOR RESEARCH IN VALUES AND PHILOSOPHY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	1
PART I. CONSTRUCTION OF THE ROMANIAN IDENTITY
Chapter I. An Ontological Definition of Romanian National Identity By Mihaela Alexandra Pop	11
Chapter II. The Reconstruction of the Human: Social and Individual Destiny in Romanian Philosophy By Madgalena Dumitrana	23
Chapter III. The Intelligibility of the Spiritual Message in the Present Context By Madgalena Dumitrana	45
Chapter IV. The Duality of Reason and Faith in Mircea Florian's Thought By Mihaela Alexandra Pop	59
Chapter V. The Tension between Philosophy, History and Politics in Forging the Meaning of Civil Society in Romanian Philosophical Culture By Mihaela Czobor-Lupp	91
Chapter VI. Universalism and Nationalism By Marin Aiftinca
PART II. EDUCATION FOR CIVIL SOCIETY
Chapter VII. Romanian Pedagogy between the Two World Wars and the Problem of Freedom in Education: Contemporary Issues By Gabriel Albu	147
Chapter VIII. The Promethean Man: Eastward or Westward? By Mihaela Alexandra Pop	167

Chapter IX. Paradigms of 'Junimea' in Education for a Civil Society By Carmen-Maria Mecu and Nicolae Mecu	181
Chapter X. The Stages of Moral and Religious Thinking of Highly Gifted Teenagers By Mihaela Roco	195
Chapter XI. In Quest of the Lost Ecumenism By Magdalena Dumitrana	223
Chapter XII. The Mission of Romanian Orthodox Church Today By Magdalena Dumitrana	257
INDEX	271