

Department of Estonian and Comparative Folklore,
Department of Ethnology,
University of Tartu

Studies in Folk Culture

Volume V

The Northern Peoples and States:
Changing Relationships

 TARTU UNIVERSITY
PRESS

Contents

Editorial.....	7
Laur Vallikivi
Two Wars in Conflict: Resistance among Nenets Reindeer Herders in the 1940s.....	14
Art Leete
Anti-Soviet Movements and Uprisings among the Siberian Indigenous Peoples during the 1920–40s.....	55
Tatiana D. Bulgakova
‘The Victory of a Loser’. Soviet Power, Survived by Shamanism .....	90
Liivo Niglas
An Individual’s Attempt of Resistance to the Colonial Policy: Yuri Vella’s play with visual media.....	110
Eva Toulouze
The Intellectuals from Russia’s Peoples of the North: from Obedience to Resistance.....	140
Aimar Ventsel
The State’s Indigenous Policy, the Centrally Planned Cultural Revival and Native Strategies of Survival .....	165
Steve Smyth
Responses to Internal Colonialism in the Yukon Territory: 1959–2004.....	184

Patrik Lantto

Raising their Voices: The Sami Movement in Sweden and the Swedish Sami Policy, 1900–1960 ..... 203

Florian Siegl

Where Have all the Enetses Gone? Tracing Demographic Data on Enetses through 70 Years of Linguistic and Ethnological Literature..... 235

Anna-Leena Siikala, Oleg Ulyashev

Field Work in a Changing Culture: the Northern Khanty ..... 254

Karina Lukin

Getting to Know about the Place of History among the Kolguev Nenets ..... 279