

TOURISM AND CULTURAL CHANGE 11

Series Editors: Mike Robinson and Alison Phipps

Tea and Tourism

Tourists, Traditions and Transformations

Edited by

Lee Jolliffe

CHANNEL VIEW PUBLICATIONS

Clevedon • Buffalo • Toronto

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
The Contributors	xi
Part 1: Introduction
1 Connecting Tea and Tourism
Lee Jolliffe	3
Part 2: Tea Histories, Collections and Traditions
2 Tracing the History of Tea Culture
Paul Leung Kin Han	23
3 Tea and Travel: Transforming the Material Culture of Tea
Lee Jolliffe	38
4 Tea Traditions in Taiwan and Yunnan
Paul Leung Kin Han	53
Part 3: Tea and Tourism: Political, Social and Economic Developments
5 Tea Production and Tourism Development in Assam: A Missed Opportunity?
Kevin Hannam	71
6 Amidst the Misty Mountains: The Role of Tea Tourism in Sri Lanka's Turbulent Tourist Industry
Rabindranath B. Gunasekara and Janet Henshall Momsen	84
7 The New Tea Appreciation Festival: Marketing and Socio-economic Development in Hunan Province, China
Rong Huang and Derek Hall	98
8 Tea Culture and Tourism in Fujian Province, China: Towards a Partnership for Sustainable Development
Honggen Xiao	115

9	Tourism Development and the Tea Gardens of Fuding, China Lee Jolliffe and Peifen Zhuang	133
10	Tourism and Tea in Kenya: Opportunity for Development? Jacquelyne Muhati and Lee Jolliffe	145
Part 4: Transforming Tea: From Tea Experiences to Tea Destinations
11	China's Tea and Horse Trade Route and its Potential for Tourism Hilary du Cros	167
12	Hangzhou: China's Green Tea City Keith Dewar and Wen Mei Li	180
13	Teapot Trails in the UK: Just a Handle or Something Worth Spouting About? Derek Hall and Steven Boyne	206
14	Tea Tourists and Tea Destinations in Canada: A New Blend? Lee Jolliffe	224
Part 5: Conclusion
15	Towards a Research Agenda for Tea Tourism Lee Jolliffe	247
	Index	253