

FESTIVE CULTURE IN GERMANY AND EUROPE FROM THE SIXTEENTH TO THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

Edited by
Karin Friedrich

The Edwin Mellen Press
Lewiston•Queenston•Lampeter

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
Foreword	ix
Acknowledgements	xv

Part I: Popular Festivals and Power

1. Introduction Karin Friedrich	1
2. Election Festivals, Power and Society in Sixteenth-Century Burgundy Mack P. Holt	17
3. Trionfi of the Holy Dead: The Relic Festivals of Baroque Bavaria Trevor Johnson	31
4. Peace Festivals and the Culture of Memory in Early Modern South German Cities Claire Gantet	57
5. The Politicization of Traditional Festivals in Germany, 1815–48 James Brophy	73
6. Wine Festivals in Contemporary France: Reshaping Power through Time in Burgundy Marion Demossier	107

Part II: Monarchic, Dynastic and Court Festivals

1. Habsburg Festivals in the Early Modern Period Karl Vocelka	123
2. Four Weddings and a Funeral: Festival Forms and Dynastic Consolidation in Ducal Lorraine 1563–1624 Kate Currey	137
3. The Petrine Year: Anniversaries and Festivals in the Reign of Peter I (1682–1725) Lindsey Hughes	149
4. The Transformation of Ceremonial: Ducal Weddings in Brunswick, c. 1760–1800 Thomas Biskup	169
5. The 1896 Millennial Festivities in Hungary: An Exercise in Patriotic and Dynastic Propaganda Tom Barcsay	187

6. Province versus Metropolis: The Instrumentalized Myth of Archduke John of Styria (1782–1859) 213
Dieter Binder

Part III: Military, National and Patriotic Festivals

1. Early Modern Tournaments and their Relationship to Warfare: France and the Empire Compared 233
Helen Watanabe O'Kelly
2. Rituals of the 'Nations in Arms': Military Festivals in Germany and France (1871–1914) 245
Jakob Vogel
3. War in Mind: Celebrations and War Enthusiasm in the Rhineland, 1913 265
Ute Schneider
4. Celebrating the Republic without Republicans: The Reichsverfassungstag in Berlin, 1929–32 281
Pamela Swett
5. The Nation Honours the Dead: Remembrance Days for the Fallen in the Weimar Republic and the Third Reich 303
Sabine Behrenbeck
6. Celebrating Christmas in the Third Reich and GDR: Political Instrumentalization and Cultural Continuity under the German Dictatorships 323
Corey Ross
7. The King's Right Hand: A Hungarian National-Religious Holiday and the Conflict between the Communist Party and the Catholic Church (1945–48) 343
Árpád v. Klimó
- Index 363