

To Make the World Safe for Diversity

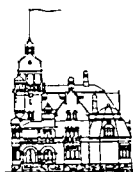

TOWARDS AN UNDERSTANDING OF
MULTI-CULTURAL SOCIETIES

Edited by

ÅKE DAUN, BILLY EHN, BARBRO KLEIN

The Swedish Immigration Institute and Museum

The Ethnology Institute,
Stockholm University

Recent Scholarship: Series A:5
ISBN 91 971 1768 4

CONTENTS

Introduction Åke Daun	7
A Crisis in Swedish Refugee Policy Tomas Hammar	15
Moulding a Community in Botkyrka Annick Sjögren	23
Performing Diversity Barbara Kirshenblatt-Gimblett	51
The Organization of Diversity: Youth Experience in Multi-Ethnic Sweden Billy Ehn	63
The "I" and the "Me" Abroad in Sweden. A Comparable Parable of the Identity Process in Multi-Cultural Settings Ina-Maria Greverus	79
Stockholm: Doubly Creolizing Ulf Hannerz	91
Should Migrants be Seen in the City? Martine Segalen	107
The Organization of Festivals and Ceremonies among Americans and Immigrants in Queens, New York Roger Sanjek	123
Ethnic Relations in the Swedish Empire 1000—1800 David Gaunt	145
The Musician as a Cultural-Esthetic Broker Owe Ronström	163
Structures of Diversity Sandra Wallman	175
Notes on the Authors and Editors	191