

Becoming Feminine: The Politics of Popular Culture

Edited by

Leslie G. Roman

Louisiana State University

Linda K. Christian-Smith

Marian College

with

Elizabeth Ellsworth

University of Wisconsin-Madison

The Falmer Press

(A member of the Taylor & Francis Group)

London, New York and Philadelphia

Contents

Introduction	1
Leslie G. Roman and Linda K. Christian-Smith
1 Femininity as Textually-Mediated Representations
Femininity as Discourse	37
Dorothy E. Smith
Intimate Outscapes: Problem-Page Letters and the Remaking of the 1950s German Family	60
Erica Carter
Romancing the Girl: Adolescent Romance Novels and the Construction of Femininity	76
Linda K. Christian-Smith
Illicit Pleasures: Feminist Spectators and Personal Best	102
Elizabeth Ellsworth
2 Femininity as Textually-Mediated Social Relations
The Curriculum of the Body: Lessons from a Catholic High School	123
Nancy Lesko
Intimacy, Labor, and Class: Ideologies of Feminine Sexuality in the Punk Slam Dance	143
Leslie G. Roman
Marxist Theories of Education and the Challenge of a Cultural Politics of Non-Synchrony	185
Cameron McCarthy
Notes on contributors	205
Index	209