

THE

CONSERVATION OF CULTURE

Folklorists and the Public Sector

Edited by BURT FEINTUCH

THE UNIVERSITY PRESS OF KENTUCKY

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: Folklorists and the Public Sector. Burt Feintuch	1
A Keynote: Stitching Patchwork in Public. Archie Green	17
Public Sector Precedents
The Bureau of American Ethnology: Folklore, Fieldwork, and the Federal Government in the Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries. Erika Brady	35
Cultural Pluralism and Applied Folklore: The New Deal Precedent. Jerrold Hirsch	46
Three Contemporary Public Sector Folklife Programs
Folklife Programs in Florida: The Formative Years. Peggy A. Bulger	71
Public Sector Folklore in Vermont. Jane C. Beck	83
Birth of a New Tradition: A City Folklorist for Baltimore. Elaine Eff	95
Programming Formats and Issues
State Folk Art Exhibitions: Review and Preview. Robert T. Teske	109
The Tendency to Ritualize: The Living Celebrations Series as a Model for Cultural Presentation and Validation. Jack Santino	118
Occupational Folklife in the Public Sector: A Case Study. Robert McCarl	132
Unshared Visions: Folklife and Politics in a Rural Community. Jean Haskell Speer	154
Folklore and Authenticity: A Myopic Marriage in Public Sector Programs. Shalom Staub	166

Cultural Conservation, Historic Preservation, and Environmental Resources

Links between Historic Preservation and Folk Cultural Programs. Ormond H. Loomis	183
The Realm of the Tangible: A Folklorist's Role in Architectural Documentation and Preservation. Michael Ann Williams	196
The Folklorist and the Highway: Theoretical and Practical Implications of the Vine Street Expressway Project. Miriam Camitta	206
Stalking the Native View: The Protection of Folklife in Natural Habitats. Mary Hufford	217
A Tougher Politics
Public Sector Folklore as Intervention: Lessons from the Past, Prospects for the Future. David E. Whisnant	233
Appendix: A Historical Archive
Letter from John Wesley Powell to S.F. Baird, April 2, 1880	251
Archive of American Folk-Song. Robert Winslow Gordon	253
WPA and Folklore Research: "Bread and Song." B.A. Botkin	258
Preservation of Indian Lore in Oregon. Dell Hymes	264
P.L. 94-201—A View from the Lobby: A Report to the American Folklore Society. Archie Green	269
Contributors	282
Index	284