

PLACING FRIENDSHIP IN CONTEXT

Edited by

REBECCA G. ADAMS AND GRAHAM ALLAN

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Notes on the contributors	page x
Acknowledgements	xiii
1 Contextualising friendship	1
Rebecca G. Adams and Graham Allan
2 The modernisation of friendship: individualism, intimacy, and gender in the nineteenth century	18
Stacey J. Olikier
3 The gendered contexts of inclusive intimacy: the Hawthorne women at work and home	43
Stephen R. Marks
4 Friendship and the private sphere	71
Graham Allan
5 Rich friendships, affluent friends: middle-class practices of friendship	92
Kaeren Harrison
6 Women's friendships in a post-modern world	117
Pat O'Connor
7 Foci of activity as changing contexts for friendship	136
Scott Feld and William C. Carter
8 The demise of territorial determinism: online friendships	153
Rebecca G. Adams
9 Reflections on context	183
Graham Allan and Rebecca G. Adams
Index	195
	ix