

Folklore, Heritage Politics and Ethnic Diversity

A Festschrift for Barbro Klein

Edited by Pertti J. Anttonen

in collaboration with

Anna-Leena Siikala, Stein R. Mathisen and Leif Magnusson

Multicultural Centre

Botkyrka, Sweden

Contents

Preface	5
ANNA-LEENA SIIKALA
Barbro Klein, a Folklorist with International and Multidisciplinary Perspectives	8
ROGER D. ABRAHAMS
Narratives of Location and Dislocation	15

Rethinking Heritage

BARBRO KLEIN
“Folklore, Heritage Politics and Ethnic Diversity”: Thinking About the Past and the Future	23
REGINA BENDIX
Heredity, Hybridity and Heritage from One Fin de Siècle to the Next	37

Traditions, Transformations and Ethnic Relations

ANNA-LEENA SIIKALA
From Sacrificial Rituals into National Festivals: Post-Soviet Transformations of Udmurt Tradition	57
FRANK KOROM
Contested Identities and the Uses of Tradition among Indo-Trinidadians	86
KARIN BECKER
Picturing a Field: Relationships Between Visual Culture and Photographic Practice in a Fieldwork Setting	100

Heritage on Display

BARBARA KIRSHENBLATT-GIMBLETT
Performing Knowledge	125
KJELL OLSEN
Ethnicity and Representation in a “Local” Museum	140
LOTTEN GUSTAFSSON
Medieval Selves and Current Communities: Playing with Identity at an Intersection of Rootedness and Mobility	158

Diversity and Homogeneity

STEIN R. MATHISEN
Travels and Narratives: Itinerant Constructions of a Homogenous Sami Heritage	179
MIKAKO IWATAKE
A “Postcolonial” Look at Kunio Yanagida, the Founding Father of Japanese Folklore Studies	206
ORVAR LÖFGREN
The Disappearance and Return of the National: The Swedish Experience 1950-2000	230
PERTTI J. ANTONEN
Cultural Homogeneity and the National Unification of a Political Community	253
Authors	279

Tabula Gratulatoria