

Southern Indians and Anthropologists

CULTURE, POLITICS, AND IDENTITY

Edited by Lisa J. Lefler and Frederic W. Gleach

Southern Anthropological Society Proceedings, No. 35
Michael V. Angrosino, Series Editor

The University of Georgia Press
Athens and London

Contents

Introduction Lisa J. Lefler and Frederic W. Gleach	1
Powhatan Identity in Anthropology and Popular Culture (and Vice Versa) Frederic W. Gleach	5
In the Service of Native Interests: Archaeology for, of, and by Cherokee People Brett Riggs	19
Considerations of Context, Time, and Discourse in Identity Politics for Indians of the Carolinas Patricia Barker Lerch	31
Voices from the Periphery: Reconstructing and Interpreting Post-Removal Histories of the Duck Town Cherokees Betty J. Duggan	43
Curating Our Past: Museum Direction Driven by Tribal Perspectives Russell G. Townsend	69
The Gendering of Langue and Parole : Literacy in Cherokee Margaret C. Bender	77
Gender Reciprocity and Ritual Speech among the Yuchi Jason Baird Jackson	89

The Twentieth-Century Conservators of the Cherokee Sacred Formulas Willard Walker	107
Stress and Coping among Chickasaw Indian Fathers: Lessons for Indian Adolescents and Their Counselors in Treatment for Substance Abuse Lisa J. Lefler	115
The American Indian Fatherhood Project: The Impact of Incarceration on Chickasaw Fathers Donald Shannon	124
Emahakv Vpelofv (Teaching Hammock): Developing a University/Native American Partnership Susan E. Stans and Louise Gopher	134
Contributors	149