

Erich Kolig; Hermann Mückler (Eds.)

Politics of Indigeneity in the South Pacific

Recent problems of identity in Oceania

LIT

CONTENTS

Erich Kolig Introduction: Cultural Revival, the Construction of indigeneity, and the World-System	7
Kenneth Maddock Revival, Renaissance, and the Meaning of Modern Constructions in Australia	25
Toon van Meijl Culture and Crisis in Maori Society: The Tradition of Other and the Displacement of Self	47
Hal B. Levine The Maori Iwi - Contested Meanings in Contemporary Aotearoa / New Zealand	73
Michael Goldsmith Maori Assertions of Indigeneity, Post-Colonial Traumatic Stress Disorder, and Holocaust Denial	85
Erich Kolig Guardians of Nature or Ecologists of the Stomach ? The Indigenous Cultural Revival in New Zealand, Resource Use and Nature Conservation.	95
Jacqueline Leckie Return to Nukulau: the Troubled Waters of Ethno-Nationalism in Fiji	119
Hermann Mückler Back to the Chessboard: The Coup and the Re-emergence of Pre-colonial Rivalries in Fiji	143
Marie Pineau - Salaiün Kanak Culture versus French Curriculum: Towards a Multicultural Education in New Caledonia?	159
Contributors	185