

TOURISM AND CULTURAL CHANGE 8

Series Editors: Mike Robinson and Alison Phipps

Festivals, Tourism and Social Change

Remaking Worlds

Edited by

David Picard and Mike Robinson

CHANNEL VIEW PUBLICATIONS

Clevedon • Buffalo • Toronto

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
The Contributors	viii
1 Remaking Worlds: Festivals, Tourism and Change David Picard and Mike Robinson	1
2 La Cavalcata Sarda: Performing Identities in a Contemporary Sardinian Festival Iride Azara and David Crouch.	32
3 Gardening the Past and Being in the World: A Popular Celebration of the Abolition of Slavery in La Réunion David Picard	46
4 Becoming All Indian: Gauchos, Pachamama Queens and Tourists in the Remaking of an Andean Festival Patricia Mathews-Salazar	71
5 The 'Freedom of the Slaves to Walk the Streets': Celebration, Spontaneity and Revelry versus Logistics at the Notting Hill Carnival Angela Burr	84
6 The Making of Community Identity through Historic Festive Practice: The Case of Ashbourne Royal Shrovetide Football Scott McCabe	99
7 'Days of Radunica': A Street Festival in the Croatian Town of Split Anka Misetic and Ines Sabotic.	119
8 Enhancing Vitality or Compromising Integrity? Festivals, Tourism and the Complexities of Performing Culture Melanie Smith and Kathryn Forest	133

9	Creating the 'Rainbow Nation': The National Women's Art Festival in Durban, South Africa Sabine Marshall152
10	Kyrgyzstan's Manas Epos Millennium Celebrations: Post-Colonial Resurgence of Turkic Culture and the Marketing of Cultural Tourism Karen Thompson, Peter Schofield, Nicola Foster and Gulnara Bakieva	172
11	The Camp Oven Festival and Australian Identity Shirley Chappel and Gregory Loades191
12	Christmas Markets in the Tyrolean Alps: Representing Regional Traditions in a Newly Created World of Christmas Oliver Haid209
13	The Placeless Festival: Identity and Place in the Post-Modern Festival Nicola E. MacLeod222
14	Gay and Lesbian Festivals: Tourism in the Change from Politics to Party Howard L. Hughes238
15	Mobility, Diaspora and the Hybridisation of Festivity: The Case of the Edinburgh Mela Elizabeth Carnegie and Melanie Smith255
16	Taking Quebec City: Protest, Carnival and Tourism at the Summit of the Americas Kirsty Robertson269
	Index284