

SPATIAL PRACTICES

Critical Explorations in Social/Spatial Theory

Edited by

Helen Liggett & David C. Perry

SAGE Publications

International Educational and Professional Publisher

Thousand Oaks London New Delhi

Contents

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Preface | vii |
| 1. Spatial Practices: An Introduction Helen Liggett & David C. Perry | 1 |
| 2. Strategy and History in Professional Practice: Planning as World Making Raphaël Fischler | 13 |
| 3. If Only the City Could Speak: The Politics of Representation Robert A. Beauregard | 59 |
| 4. The Great Frame-Up: Fantastic Appearances in Contemporary Spatial Politics M. Christine Boyer | 81 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| 5. Black Politics on the Apollo's Stage: The Return of the Handkerchief Heads | 110 |
| Stuart Alan Clarke | |
| 6. The Rise of the New Walled Cities | 144 |
| Dennis R. Judd | |
| 7. Regulation and Flexible Specialization as Theories of Capitalist Development: Challengers to Marx and Schumpeter? | 167 |
| Richard A. Walker | |
| 8. Making Space: Planning as a Mode of Thought | 209 |
| David C. Perry | |
| 9. City Sights/Sites of Memories and Dreams | 243 |
| Helen Liggett | |
| Index | 274 |
| About the Authors | 291 |