

After the Nazi Racial State

Difference and Democracy in Germany and Europe

Rita Chin, Heide Fehrenbach, Geoff Eley, and Atina Grossmann

Sondersammelgebiet
Volks- & Völkerkunde
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

The University of Michigan Press
Ann Arbor

Contents

Introduction: What's Race Got to Do With It? Postwar German History in Context	I
Rita Chin and Heide Fehrenbach
CHAPTER 1
Black Occupation Children and the Devolution of the Nazi Racial State	30
Heide Fehrenbach
CHAPTER 2
From Victims to "Homeless Foreigners": Jewish Survivors in Postwar Germany	55
Atina Grossmann
CHAPTER 3
Guest Worker Migration and the Unexpected Return of Race	80
Rita Chin
CHAPTER 4
German Democracy and the Question of Difference, 1945–1995	102
Rita Chin and Heide Fehrenbach
CHAPTER 5
The Trouble with "Race": Migrancy, Cultural Difference, and the Remaking of Europe	137
Geoff Eley
Notes	183
Select Bibliography	243
Index	253